

Since the Wisconsin NO-CALL list became effective, the quality of our lives has improved dramatically and particularly evenings and weekends which is valuable time. My husband and I adamantly request that the WI Law continue and take precedence over all laws. We do not want it changed unless making it even more difficult for unsolicited calls to be made to our home.